Virginia Reaches Greensboro for Annual Games With Carolina.

Greensbore, N. C., April 7.—The college spirit was in full blast there tonight, the eve of the first annual series of baseball games between the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia. The arrival of the Charlottesville squad was the signal for great demonstrations by the supporters of the Virginians. The Carolina team will arrive early to-morrow morning on a special train, accompanied by the entire student body.

It was announced to-night that Rixey would be sent to the box for Virginia, while either Lee or Duls will pitch for Carolina, In fielding the teams appear to be on a par, though it is conceded that the Virginia battery has displayed more class than that of the Tarheels.

Lexington, Va., April 7.—Washington and Lee took the second game from Pennsylvania State to-day by the score of 3 to 2. In the eighth inning Moran opened with a two-bagger, went to third on Whiting's wild throw, and scored on Donahue's single.

The varsity scored first in the third, when Carson dropped Webster's fly and Donahue singled. Turbyfill's double scored Donahue, Pennsylvania State tailied twice in the fourth on Eberlin's single and Haddow's drive over left field fence for four bags.

Dooley pitched flye innings for the varsity. Moran finished the game, allowing no hits, and the team fielded perfectly behind him. The varsity outplayed and outhit the visitors.

The game was called by agreement to allow the visitors to catch the train for Annapolis.

Lynchburg Managers Will Begin Picking Out Men of Team.

Lynchburg, Va., April 7.—Roger McCormac, the catcher bought several weeks ago from Raleigh, of the Eastern Carolina League, reported to Manager Stocksdale, and the team is now complete, unless the manager succeeds in signing a southpaw pitcher, whom he has been endeavoring to secure for a week.

The arrival of McCormae gives the team four capable catchers, in Lucia, Bien, Goodfellow and the new arrival, and Manager. Stocksdale will, no doubt, find it a hard proposition to pick the two men he will carry through the scason

Scason.

While nothing has been said by the management as yet, there is little or no doubt about Lucia holding his tob, and if this proves to be the case, three men will begin the fight for the other place open behind the bat.

The team, at any rate, is going to be strong behind the bat this year, unless all signs fall at this time.

Elimination of Liquor Is Ordered by New Club Owner.

St. Louis, Mo., April 7.—While not slighting the men, "ladies first," is practically to be the motto and slogan of baseball's newest figure, the "lady owner," who is personified by Mirs, Nellie Hathaway Britton, of Cleveland, owner of the St. Louis National Baseball Club, who is in J. Louis.

"The women, girls and children are to be catered to in League Park," says Mrs. Britton, "and for that reason the elimination of the liquor bar from the park remains a perpetual order.

"My uncle established that rule for this season, and it is my wish, as strongly as it was his it do away with this feature of baseball. In the absence of the bar we expect to have more women, and children.
